Sunday Worship Celebration: 10:30 a.m.

In a hostile, hurting world we reach out to share kindness and laughter. Our spirituality is based on Jesus and his love and compassion. We provide a community of support and healing where all are welcomed and valued regardless of race, age, sexual orientation, disability, gender, or economic status. In a world where people feel they can love only those who are like themselves, we seek to celebrate the uniqueness of every human being.

"Making Room in the Circle"

FEBRUARY 2012

Pastor Jeff's Christmas Eve Sermon/Slide Show

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it." And so we light candles to remind ourselves of the power of that light to cast out the darkness. "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us..." The divine Word, that had been there at the very beginning of creation, and through which all things were made, and through which you were made, and I was made. "The word became flesh..." the same flesh in which we dwell – everyone of us. Beginning life as a vulnerable little baby, so fragile, so dependent upon the care of those who come before us in the flesh, the love passed on through the generations. What is it about a little child that is so enchanting for those of us who have grown old? That awakens the slumbering God-ache in our souls? That reminds who we are beyond all the roles we fill and titles we hold? And what did Jesus mean when he said that unless we turn and become like little children, we will never enter the kingdom of God? That God should come among us as a little child, without pretense, beyond all barriers? And what does it mean to truly grasp the meaning of Christmas? How do we give gifts to the baby Jesus? What does it mean to live out of the good news of great joy that comes to ALL people?

That joy of which the angels sang, that sounds forth in every ringing bell, every resonate harmony, and also in every really good laugh. To experience this joy requires that our eyes be opened, that we may truly see, and that our hearts be opened, to behold the light that shines in every face. Yes, faces. Faces are important. In every face, there is Jesus in disguise. That's not just a catchy saying. That's truth. "For the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us," and it was the Word through which each of us was made in the image and likeness of God. And if we truly "get" the miracle of Christmas, our eyes will be open to see Jesus in all flesh: in mothers and sons, and fathers and daughters; in children, teenagers and adults, and those who have lived many years upon this earth. In the faces we know well, and the faces we have just met. In every family, and in every solitary soul God allows us to meet.

There's always room in the circle.

It's not good for the man to be alone, said God, nor for that matter, for the woman, nor the widow, nor the child, nor the teenager. We need one another, and God has given us light to share to ease the burden of the night. God gives us the gift of others, that we might keep one another company, And like shepherds of old, we may keep watch for those surprising angels and their insistent messages that we truly don't need to be afraid, and to "try again" when we get discouraged – to remind one another that there is always cause for hope because our God has not abandoned us to the darkness, but has come to share the very flesh in which we experience life, to share our adventures, our laughter and our tears.

Jesus said, where two or more are gathered in my name, there I am also. And so he is... Deep inside of all of us there is a desire to give. Like the wisemen who travelled from the east with gifts to give, we, too long to give love away the way Jesus did. To have our lives declare emphatically that there really IS GOOD NEWS OF GREAT JOY to share... that we are in this great adventure called life TOGETHER; that through the Word that became flesh we truly are sisters & brothers through HIM who loved everyone of us... that there is room in HIS circle for all people, not just some people. And when we embrace one another we embrace Jesus, we hug Jesus, himself. We cradle the light of the world, and the darkness is once more overcome.

In the kindness of Jesus, Pastor Jeff

It's amazing how many little things we do or experience every day that contribute to our overall happiness and amusement. It's the little simple things that make us smile, feel warm inside, or sometimes laugh out loud.

When was the last time you felt happy because you were the last one in the checkout line before the "closed" sign went up?

Or making a snow angel?

We are going to draw attention to these AWESOME moments by converting the bulletin board in the narthex into the BOARD OF AWESOME.

We want everyone to post their awesome moments on the board. You will find everything you need on the bulletin board: marker, awesome moment scrolls, and stick pins.

Add one, two, or as many as you want. Fill the board! Let's make this a real corner of joy in our church. If you have any questions, please speak to Darryl, Connie, or Barb.
